Please check the following volunteer opportunities that you would like to be part of. (Please check all that apply).

Children's workshop Guide

This volunteer position would require helping to guide elementary school students through the workshop. There are 5 stations that children would go through, with the volunteer providing a mini lesson introduction to the concept of conflict. Depending on the amount of students, each visit would take roughly 1 to 2 hours. Once a group or school books the workshop, an email will go out to the volunteers asking for availability. The workshop will be open Monday thru Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Fundraising Guild

This group of volunteers would help our Director of Development raise funds for the Western Justice Center. This might include event fundraising and event planning. Days and hours to be determined by volunteer.

Outreach

This volunteer position would require going out into the community and providing trainings in the areas of conflict resolution and/or mediation and/or the work of WJCF. Days and hours to be determined by volunteer.

Peer Mediation Coach

Once a year, WJCF hosts a Peer Mediation Invitational. Coaches are asked to volunteer half a day to mentoring youth as the youth practice peer mediation skills. The event is held at the Western Justice Center Foundation and at the 9th District Court of Appeals Courthouse. The PMI consists of two days, usually taking place in the spring.

Office/Administrative

This volunteer would help the WJCF office with small administrative duties. Days and hours to be determined by volunteer.
