PASADENA YOUTHS, PARENTS ASKED TO SPEAK UP ABOUT VIOLENCE

Teens, young adults and parents in Pasadena are invited to attend the Feb. 21 meeting of the city of Pasadena's Youth Development and Violence Prevention Committee to provide input on how violence has impacted their lives and neighborhoods.

The 6 p.m. meeting in the auditorium at Villa-Parke Community Center, 363 E. Villa St., is free and open to the public. Child care and Spanish interpretation will be provided.

The committee meets the first and third Thursday of every month. For more information and agendas visit www.cityofpasadena.net <<http://www.cityofpasadena.net/>> and click on Ad Hoc Committee under the "Hot Topics" section.

Meetings replay daily on 55 KPAS and the Internet. Visit www.cityofpasadena.net and click on City News for the schedule or call (626) 795-5556.
