

WESTERN JUSTICE CENTER FOUNDATION
ENGAGEMENT·EDUCATION·PEACE·BUILDING

55 S. Grand Ave.
Pasadena, CA 91105
626-584-7494
www.westernjustice.org

PEACEBUILDING TOWNHALL

COMMUNITY & POLICE DIALOGUE

June 4th, 2009

6:30-8:30pm

At the Western Justice Center

Light Refreshments will be served

OBJECTIVE FOR JUNE 4th:

To move from words to action and to introduce the “deliberative dialogue” process.

We are posing the question:

“What does it take to build peace in our community?”

.....

In preparation for the dialogue, please visit our website www.westernjustice.org/ce_peacebuilding_brownbags.html

Participants will include:

Rick Pickens
PUSD

Commander Qualls
Pasadena Police Dept

Fumi & Josh
Neighborhood Outreach
Workers

Cynthia Loo
Juvenile Court Referee

William Monteroso
Alt. Public Defender

James S. Muller
Civil Rights Attorney

(Invited)
ACLU

(Invited)
Deputy District Attorney

“Deliberative dialogue is the process whereby individuals in a community come together to thoughtfully discuss all aspects of a specific issue. The dialogue provides a gauge on the public’s viewpoint regarding common problems and issues. In this process, people have the opportunity to look at an issue from many different vantage points and discuss it with people different from themselves. People not only discuss facts but go deeper, discussing personal experiences and things held valuable.”

- Clemson Public Service

<http://www.clemson.edu/sandhill/page.htm?pageld=2441>

Please RSVP to
abbie@westernjustice.org
626-584-7494

*Event is free
and open to the public*

*Parking is free
on the street or in Federal Courthouse Lot*