

WESTERN JUSTICE CENTER
FOUNDATION
ENGAGEMENT-EDUCATION-PEACE-BUILDING

An INTERFAITH Deliberative Dialogue

What does it take to build peace in a community?

November 12, 2009
6:30-8:30pm
Western Justice Center
55 South Grand Avenue
Pasadena, CA 91105

Event is free and open to the public. Parking is available on the street or in the Federal Courthouse Lot.

Light refreshments will be served

Please RSVP to:
natalie@westernjustice.org
626-584-7494

~~~~~

For more information on Deliberative Dialogues,
please visit:
www.westernjustice.org/ce\_peacebuilding\_brownbags.html

What is a 'Deliberative Dialogue'?

This is a process that invites community leaders with unique perspectives to openly discuss sensitive issues. Religious and spiritual groups are especially invited to attend this session to VOICE their opinions on the issues that are most important to them, and to discuss action steps that can promote peace.